DEPARTMENT OF ARTS AND CRAFTS.

This department consists of two classes; Home and Foreign Manufactured Articles. The former contains articles made by hand in the Islands, exhibited by the makers. Prizes will be given for such articles only. The latter contains objects of art owned by residents of Hawaii. The committee has arranged this latter class (which is really a loan exhibit) believing that it would afford the public an unusual and excellent opportunity of viewing articles of beauty and of artistic value.

No entry fees will be asked, but 5% will be charged on all orders taken, or articles sold.

The committee requests that notification of entries be made to them before November 1st.

Exhibits must be delivered at the Fair Grounds not later than November 28th.

A card stating name of article and as full a description as possible is requested with each entry. The articles will be exhibited with or without the owners name as desired. All articles for sale must be plainly marked.

Other awards besides those listed below may be made according to the number of entries, and at the discretion of the committee.

Although the committee cannot hold themselves responsible for damages done the exhibits, every precaution possible will be taken to safe-guard them.

Any further information concerning this department will be willingly furnished on application to any member of the committee.

ON THE OTHER ISLANDS

The strike microbe which stirred up recent trouble among the Honolulu stevedores, their strike ending this week, passed itself along to the teamsters employed by the Honolulu Construction and Draying Company, and at a meeting of some two hundred men held in Kakaako last Monday night a strike was decided upon. The men are striking for a minimum wage of $2.25 a day. They are satisfied with the maximum now paid of $2.75 a day, although the men drawing this highest pay are out with the strikers. At the present time the men are getting from a minimum of two dollars a day up to two seventy-five.

Mrs. Elizabeth J. Knight who has been on Hawaii for some days is to personally superintend the placing of an urn over the tomb of her daughter, Annie Thelma Parker Smart, who died two years ago last February. It was known that Mrs. Knight intended taking her young grandson, Richard Smart, who is three years old, to the tomb of the lad's mother, but the rest of her plan had been kept secret. Mrs. Knight made the trip to Hawaii with this idea in view, and it is said intends returning to the mainland as soon as possible after the ceremony of placing the urn.

Three times in succession Judge C. K. Quinn, in the Fourth Circuit Court, has refused to accept a plea of guilty. Two of the men who pleaded guilty did so to a charge of murder in the first degree. The judge explained that the penalty was dead and ordered in each case that a plea of not guilty be entered. The third man is accused of striking Jono Vasconcellos with his automobile and leaving him by the roadside. Because the judge was not satisfied with the interpreter he refused to accept the plea of Nicolas Marias of guilty.

Under the new rules of the war department at Washington governing the organization of the National Guard there have been busy times recently among the officers of the Second Regiment, N. G. H., with headquarters in Hilo. Col. John D. Easton and his staff have now organized the new headquarters company, which includes the band, messengers and regimental sergeants majors, beside the teamsters for this branch, and the battalion sergeants major.

One result of the publication of the booklet, "Jumping Around in Hawaii," by James W. Jump, the Catalina Island game fisherman, who made the world's record catch of tuna in Hawaii.

waiian waters last spring, is the receipt by the promotion committee of a request from a man associated with the Coast Fishing company of Wilmington, California, as to the possibility of establishing a fish cannery for Hawaiian tuna.

Miss Geraldine Aitken of Portland, Oregon, has been added to the musical staff of the Oahu College, and is now at her regular duties as instructor for the piano. Miss Aitken comes well recommended as she has studied under Colvin B. Cady in both Boston and Portland. She has had a wide experience in teaching children and is a welcome addition to the faculty of Punahou's music school.

For the purpose of aiding the Territory in drafting proper laws for the control of underground water for irrigation purposes, A. E. Chandler, member of the California state water commission, will arrive in Honolulu soon. Codes similar to the one to be drawn up for Hawaii have been drafted by the water expert for Pacific Coast States. He also framed the Philippine Irrigation Bill.

All work on the big Hilo breakwater has stopped; all men employed by Contractor George E. Marshall have been discharged, and it is very uncertain when operations will commence again. The indications are that there will be a complete change in operations forced by the American Surety Company, which is seeking to force Mr. Marshall to give up his contract on the breakwater.

Arrangements were entered into last week by James Bergstrom, to publish throughout the United States Harry Lauder's famous song "I Love You Honolulu," a well-known music publishing firm in San Francisco having entered into the plan. The promotion committee may also arrange to use this song to advertise the Islands.

Bishop & Company have announced that their preliminary estimate of the 1917 crop of Oahu Sugar Company is 30,000 tons. This estimate is for shipping purposes only, to provide the Sugar Factors' Company a basis on which to contract tonnage for the ensuing year.

M. A. Fennel, a student at the College of Hawaii and a graduate of St. Louis College, has filed his application for one of the candidacies to West Point which Governor Pinkham has at his disposal. This is the first application to reach the Governor's office.
